6.1M SPORT D-TUBE

The 6.1m Sport D-Tube is a fisherman's dream. The design of hardy all-aluminium hull and pontoons wrapped around our 6.1m shell is perfect for tough conditions and for negotiating challenging terrain, both marine and seashore.

Go where you have never been before with this adventure-craft. The sport console allows quick and easy access to all sections of the craft, and allows for endless customisation.

When you return home, the compact D-Tube fits into any boat shed, ready to venture out again at a moment's notice.
